1 WILLUNGA FARMERS MARKET

Saturday mornings in McLaren Vale are worth an early wake up call. Browse and buy delicious, fresh, local and seasonal produce in the Willunga High School. With over 80 vendors, this farmer's market is open every Saturday from 8am-12pm.

2 MCLAREN VALE WINE & DINE

McLaren Vale is one of the most famous wine regions in Australia with over 80 cellar doors to sip your way through - but did you know that this slice of vineyard paradise is also a fine-dining foodie haven? You're spoilt for choice with world-class degustation's, many Chef Hat awarded restaurants and hidden away gems tucked in old sheds, inns and barns. The Currant Shed, The Salopian Inn, Pizzateca, Maxwell Wines, Gemtree Wines, Coriole Vineyards are just a few to get you started but there's plenty more that make McLaren Vale an unparalleled must-see destination.

3 DOWN THE RABBIT HOLE

Fall down the rabbit hole and experience a wine tasting like no other - inside a vintage double decker bus. Lounge on the lawn amongst the beautiful grounds, order a grazing board, sip some wines or book a table at their sit down restaurant.

4 RED POLES CAFÉ & RESTAURANT

Offering the perfect mix of food, wine, Aboriginal art and ale, this exciting space is situated in the middle of a vineyard and surrounded by lush gardens and natural bushland.

5 CHALK HILL

Chalk Hill is a must visit McLaren Vale hub with arguably the best views of the wine region. The area is home to Never Never Distilling Co., Chalk Hill Wines and Cucina di Strada (by the region's best pizza house, Pizzateca).

6 D'ARENBERG

d'Arenberg's Cube offers an incredible and unique multisensory journey inside the Rubik's cube-shaped five-storey building that will leave a lasting impression. Complete the d'Arenberg Cube experience over the seasonal menu at d'Arry's Verandah Restaurant, soak up the atmosphere in the 360degree video room or get creative and blend your own wine in an extraordinary experience.

7 HAHNDORF VILLAGE PRECINCT

Start at Prancing Pony to sample some fine brews before heading to Hahndorf Main Street which boasts producers, cellar doors, cafes and restaurants - some with a nod to German heritage and others representing local and international fare. Learn to make cheese and beer at Grünthal, blend your own botanicals at Ambleside Distillers or for a truly premium experience, spend the day under the trees on a VIP day bed at Sidewood Cellar Door and Restaurant.

8 BEERENBERG FARM

Head to Beerenberg Farm between November and April and you'll be welcomed by fields of luscious strawberries. Fill your basket and taste the fruit straight from the vine, before cooling off with morning tea and a cold drink in the Farm Cafe. After perusing the strawberry fields, check out their farm cafe that serves up delicious breakfast, lunch and afternoon tea, treat yourself to a homemade ice cream and stock up on some of their famous jams from the farm shop.

9 THE LANE VINEYARD, SHAW + SMITH

The Lane Vineyard is an accolade-laden vineyard and restaurant boasting a top chef, Tom Robinson, who was recently named among the Top 20 in Adelaide. To try their hand-crafted blended wines, book into The Gathering - a degustation style wine tasting that showcases the harmony between single-vineyard wines and the restaurant menu or follow The Lane walking map and find and enjoy a seasonal chef-made picnic hamper nestled amongst the ancient gum trees and rolling vineyards of their estate. A quick hop up the road and visit Shaw + Smith who has built an enviable reputation for award-winning wine, and if you have the opportunity, book in for the Friday Table with a winery tour, followed by a convivial lunch.

10 WOODSIDE CHEESE WRIGHTS

Woodside is true to the word 'artisan', where all the cheeses are crafted by hand. Drop by to appreciate the taste and art of handcrafted cheese or visit Melba Chocolates next door.

11 GOLDING WINES

A storybook pretty winery that boasts lush gardens and well-tended vineyards. They also produce a range of award-winning wines, including a vegan collection. The tasting room is a beautifully appointed stone barn, and you might also like to book into the Gingko restaurant. Or go beyond the Tasting Room and immerse yourself with the ultimate wine experiences: dine in a whimsical hand woven tasting nest with the Nido Experience or enjoy a self-guided gourmet picnic with their bespoke Golding hampers ready for you to collect and unpack once you have found your spot on their lawns.

12 PENFOLDS MAGILL ESTATE

The brand that put Australian wine on the map. Stunning views, the iconic Bin range and restaurants offering the most exquisite contemporary fare and exemplary service makes Magill Estate a must. The café attached also allows for a more cost effective daytime culinary experience.

13 NATIONAL WINE CENTRE OF AUSTRALIA

When's the last time you had over 120 wines available at the click of a button in the Adelaide CBD (or anywhere for that matter)? Educate yourself on the process, history and ethos of winemaking in Australia before sampling your results.

14 APPLEWOOD DISTILLERY & UNICO ZELO

Experience craft gin, liquors and spirits featuring local botanicals and fruit. Prefer wine? Sip your way through a flight of curious wines that uniquely represent Australian wine at Unico Zelo.

15 MAGGIE BEER'S FARM SHOP

A sampler's delight! Pâté, chutney, verjuice and salted caramel are just some of the products available at Maggie Beer's farm shop. You can enjoy a cappuccino or some informal lunch out on the deck overlooking the local pond. If you're looking for a more substantial meal, head over to the adjoining Farm Eatery, where you can learn the tricks of the trade through a cooking class, gin-making experience or an impressive country style long lunch.

16 SEPPELTSFIELD

Taste tawny from your birth year or the legendary 100-year old fortified. Be sure to also visit the JamFactory gallery and working studios, and dine at Fino restaurant. Are you a fan of Aussie natural skincare products? Do your body a favour and stop into Vasse Virgin or take part in their delightful workshops before you leave.

17 HENTLEY FARM

Globally acclaimed for its excellence in culinary service, Hentley Farm is a single estate boutique winery nestled amongst rolling hills in the west of the Barossa Valley, producing exceptional wines and memorable experiences. In keeping with the local theme, it's always a plus to be eating out of an 1880's stable converted into a contemporary modern restaurant!

18 GREENOCK

Barossa's best kept secret! This township may be small but it packs a lot of charm with food and drink options within walking distance from each other. You'll find Greenock Brewers, a boutique beer brewery; El Estanco will provide the best pastries in the area and the Murray Street Vineyards and Kalleske Wines both have a cellar door on site.

19 WATERVALE HOTEL

Set against the backdrop of the stunning hills of Watervale, browse the extensive wine list which highlights the variety of grape grown and produced through the Clare Valley region. Their tasting plate menu encompasses sharing style of street food, using local, fresh and seasonal produce with an added flair.

20 SEVENHILL CELLARS & ST ALOYSIUS CHURCH

Take a self-guided walking tour of this historical site in the heart of Clare Valley. Sevenhill Cellars was the first winery established in the region by the Jesuits in 1831. Enjoy the underground vaulted cellar, St Aloysius Church, expansive grounds and their award-winning wines. The Riesling Trail also travels past the vineyards of this historic site and is a great way to experience the region.

21 PIKES WINES

Few wines are as synonymous with Australian riesling as Pikes. But did you know the Pikes brand is also responsible for one of South Australia's oldest craft breweries? Taste it all and more at the recently established Slate Restaurant onsite - a culinary destination awarded the Clare Valley's "Cellar Door with Best Food" by Gourmet Traveller Wine Magazine and a Chef Hat winner from the Australian Good Food Guide.
